19 plan and any applicable election deadlines under 20 the plan, and

22 ticipant that the participant would be entitled 23 to receive notwithstanding this subsection.

1               “(2) UNENROLLED PARTICIPANT.—For pur-

4               “(A) is eligible to participate in a defined 5               contribution plan,

6               “(B) has received the summary plan de-

6 SEC. 11. RECOVERY OF RETIREMENT PLAN OVERPAY-
7 MENTS.

8       (a) OVERPAYMENTS UNDER ERISA.—Section 206 of 9 the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 10 (29 U.S.C. 1056) is amended by adding at the end the 11 following new subsection:

12        "(h) SPECIAL RULES APPLICABLE TO BENEFIT
13 OVERPAYMENTS —

14                 “(1) GENERAL RULE.—In the case of an inad-15                 vertent benefit overpayment by any pension plan, the 16                 responsible plan fiduciary shall not be considered to 17                 have failed to comply with the requirements of this 18                 title merely because such fiduciary determines, in 19                 the exercise of its fiduciary discretion, not to seek 20                 recovery of all or part of such overpayment from—

21                   “(A) any participant or beneficiary,

22                         “(B) any plan sponsor of, or contributing 23                         employer to—

1 restore any impermissible forfeiture from 2 any participant's or beneficiary's account
3 arising in connection with the overpayment 4 is, separately from and independently of 5 the overpayment, allocated to such account
6 pursuant to the nonforfeiture require-7 ments of section 203 (for example, out of 8 the plan's forfeiture account, additional 9 employer contributions, or recoveries from 10 those responsible for the overpayment), or 11 “(ii) a defined benefit pension plan 12 subject to the funding rules in part 3 of 13 this subtitle B, unless the responsible plan 14 fiduciary determines, in the exercise of its 15 fiduciary discretion, that failure to recover 16 all or part of the overpayment faster than 17 required under such funding rules would 18 materially affect the plan's ability to pay 19 benefits due to other participants and 20 beneficiaries, or 21 “(C) any fiduciary of the plan, other than 22 a fiduciary (including a plan sponsor or contrib-23 uting employer acting in a fiduciary capacity) 24 whose breach of its fiduciary duties resulted in 25 such overpayment, provided that if the plan has

1           established prudent procedures to prevent and 2           minimize overpayment of benefits and the rel-
3           evant plan fiduciaries have followed such proce-4           dures, an inadvertent benefit overpayment will 5           not give rise to a breach of fiduciary duty.

6           “(2) REDUCTION IN FUTURE BENEFIT PAY-
7           MENTS AND RECOVERY FROM RESPONSIBLE
8           PARTY.—Paragraph (1) shall not fail to apply with 9           respect to any inadvertent benefit overpayment
10          merely because, after discovering such overpayment, 11          the responsible plan fiduciary—

12           “(A) reduces future benefit payments to 13           the correct amount provided for under the 14           terms of the plan, or

15           “(B) seeks recovery from the person or 16           persons responsible for the overpayment.

17           “(3) EMPLOYER FUNDING OBLIGATIONS.—
18          Nothing in this subsection shall relieve an employer
19          of any obligation imposed on it to make contribu-
20          tions to a plan to meet the minimum funding stand-
21          ards under part 3 of this subtitle B or to prevent 22          or restore an impermissible forfeiture in accordance 23          with section 203.

24           “(4) RECOUPMENT FROM PARTICIPANTS AND 25           BENEFICIARIES.—If the responsible plan fiduciary,

1       in the exercise of its fiduciary discretion, decides to 2       seek recoupment from a participant or beneficiary of 3       all or part of an inadvertent benefit overpayment
4       made by the plan to such participant or beneficiary, 5       it may do so, subject to the following conditions:

6                 “(A) No interest or other additional 7       amounts (such as collection costs or fees) are 8       sought on overpaid amounts for any period be-9       fore or after the date of correction of such over-10      payment.

11                “(B) If the plan seeks to recoup past over-12      payments of a non-decreasing periodic benefit 13      by reducing future benefit payments—

14                         “(i) the reduction ceases after the 15      plan has recovered the full dollar amount 16      of the overpayment,

17                         “(ii) the amount recouped each cal-18      endar year does not exceed 10 percent of 19      the full dollar amount of the overpayment, 20      and

21                         “(iii) future benefit payments are not 22      reduced to below 90 percent of the periodic 23      amount otherwise payable under the terms
24      of the plan.

1       Alternatively, if the plan seeks to recoup past
2       overpayments of a non-decreasing periodic ben-
3       efit through one or more installment payments, 4       the sum of such installment payments in any 5       calendar year does not exceed the sum of the 6       reductions that would be permitted in such year 7       under the preceding sentence.

8               “(C) If the plan seeks to recoup past over-9       payments of a benefit other than a non-decreas-10      ing periodic benefit, the plan satisfies require-
11      ments developed by the Secretary for purposes 12      of this subparagraph.

13               “(D) Efforts to recoup overpayments are—

14                       “(i) not accompanied by threats of 15       litigation, unless the responsible plan fidu-16       ciary reasonably believes it could prevail in 17       a civil action brought in Federal or State 18       court to recoup the overpayments, and 19                       “(ii) not made through a collection 20       agency or similar third party, unless the 21       participant or beneficiary ignores or rejects 22       efforts to recoup the overpayment following

23       either a final judgment in Federal or State 24       court or a settlement between the partici-

1                   pant or beneficiary and the plan, in either 2                   case authorizing such recoupment.

3                   “(E) Recoupment of past overpayments to 4                   a participant is not sought from any beneficiary 5                   of the participant, including a spouse, surviving 6                   spouse, former spouse, or other beneficiary.

7                   “(F) Recoupment may not be sought if the 8                   first overpayment occurred more than 3 years
9                   before the participant or beneficiary is first no-10                  tified in writing of the error.

11                  “(G) A participant or beneficiary from 12                  whom recoupment is sought is entitled to con-13                  test all or part of the recoupment pursuant to 14                  the plan’s claims procedures.

15                  “(H) In determining the amount of 16                  recoupment to seek, the responsible plan fidu-17                  ciary may take into account the hardship that 18                  recoupment likely would impose on the partici-
19                  pant or beneficiary.

20                  “(5) EFFECT OF CULPABILITY.—Subpara-
21                  graphs (A) through (F) of paragraph (4) shall not 22                  apply to protect a participant or beneficiary who is 23                  culpable. For purposes of this paragraph, a partici-
24                  pant or beneficiary is culpable if the individual bears 25                  responsibility for the overpayment (such as through

1 misrepresentations or omissions that led to the over-
2 payment), or if the individual knew, or had good 3 reason to know under the circumstances, that the 4 benefit payment or payments were materially in ex-
5 cess of the correct amount. Notwithstanding the pre-6 ceding sentence, an individual is not culpable merely 7 because the individual believed the benefit payment
8 or payments were or might be in excess of the cor-
9 rect amount, if the individual raised that question 10 with an authorized plan representative and was told 11 the payment or payments were not in excess of the 12 correct amount. With respect to a culpable partici-
13 pant or beneficiary, efforts to recoup overpayments
14 shall not be made through threats of litigation, un-15 less a lawyer for the plan could make the representa-
16 tions required under Rule 11 of the Federal Rules 17 of Civil Procedure if the litigation were brought in 18 Federal court.”.

19 (b) OVERPAYMENTS UNDER INTERNAL REVENUE
20 CODE OF 1986.—

21 (1) QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS.—Section
22 414 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, is fur-23 ther amended by adding at the end the following
24 new subsection:

1       “(bb) SPECIAL RULES APPLICABLE TO BENEFIT
2 OVERPAYMENTS.—

3           “(1) IN GENERAL.—A plan shall not fail to be 4 treated as described in clause (i), (ii), (iii), or (iv)
5 of section 219(g)(5)(A) (and shall not fail to be 6 treated as satisfying the requirements of section 7 401(a) or 403) merely because—

8           “(A) the plan fails to obtain payment from 9 any participant, beneficiary, employer, plan 10 sponsor, fiduciary, or other party on account of 11 any inadvertent benefit overpayment made by 12 the plan, or

13           “(B) the plan sponsor amends the plan to 14 reduce past or future benefit payments to af-15 fected participants and beneficiaries in order to 16 adjust for prior inadvertent benefit overpay-
17 ments.

18           “(2) REDUCTION IN FUTURE BENEFIT PAY-
19 MENTS AND RECOVERY FROM RESPONSIBLE
20 PARTY.—Paragraph (1) shall not fail to apply to a 21 plan merely because, after discovering a benefit over-
22 payment, such plan—

23           “(A) reduces future benefit payments to 24 the correct amount provided for under the
25 terms of the plan, or

1                 “(B) seeks recovery from the person or 2                 persons responsible for such overpayment.

3                 “(3) EMPLOYER FUNDING OBLIGATIONS.—
4                 Nothing in this subsection shall relieve an employer
5                 of any obligation imposed on it to make contribu-
6                 tions to a plan to meet the minimum funding stand-7                 ards under sections 412 and 430 or to prevent or re-8                 store an impermissible forfeiture in accordance with 9                 section 411.

10                “(4) OBSERVANCE OF BENEFIT LIMITATIONS.— 11                Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a plan to which 12                paragraph (1) applies shall observe any limitations 13                imposed on it by section 401(a)(17) or 415. The 14                plan may enforce such limitations using any method 15                approved by the Secretary of the Treasury for re-16                coupling benefits previously paid or allocations pre-17                viously made in excess of such limitations.

18                “(5) COORDINATION WITH OTHER QUALIFICA-
19                TION REQUIREMENTS.—The Secretary of the Treas-
20                ury may issue regulations or other guidance of gen-21                eral applicability specifying how benefit overpay-
22                ments and their recoulement or non-recoulement 23                from a participant or beneficiary shall be taken into 24                account for purposes of satisfying any requirement

1       applicable to a plan to which paragraph (1) ap-2       plies.”.

3                     (2) ROLLOVERS.—Section 402(c) of such Code 4       is amended by adding at the end the following new 5       paragraph:

6                     “(12) In the case of an inadvertent benefit
7       overpayment from a plan to which section 8       414(bb)(1) applies that is transferred to an eligible 9       retirement plan by or on behalf of a participant or 10      beneficiary—

11                    “(A) the portion of such overpayment with 12       respect to which recoupment is not sought on 13       behalf of the plan shall be treated as having 14       been paid in an eligible rollover distribution if 15       the payment would have been an eligible roll-16       over distribution but for being an overpayment, 17       and

18                    “(B) the portion of such overpayment with 19       respect to which recoupment is sought on behalf 20       of the plan shall be permitted to be returned to 21       such plan and in such case shall be treated as 22       an eligible rollover distribution transferred to 23       such plan by the participant or beneficiary who 24       received such overpayment (and the plans mak-

1                   ing and receiving such transfer shall be treated 2                   as permitting such transfer).

3                   In any case in which recoupment is sought on behalf 4                   of the plan but is disputed by the participant or ben-5                   eficiary who received such overpayment, such dispute 6                   shall be subject to the claims procedures of the plan 7                   that made such overpayment, such plan shall notify 8                   the plan receiving the rollover of such dispute, and 9                   the plan receiving the rollover shall retain such over-10                  payment on behalf of the participant or beneficiary 11                  (and shall be entitled to treat such overpayment as 12                  plan assets) pending the outcome of such proce-13                  dures.”.

14                 (c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by 15                 this section shall apply as of the date of the enactment 16                 of this Act.

17                 (d) CERTAIN ACTIONS BEFORE DATE OF ENACT-18                 MENT.—Plans, fiduciaries, employers, and plan sponsors 19                 are entitled to rely on—

20                   (1) a good faith interpretation of then existing 21                   administrative guidance for inadvertent benefit over-22                   payment recoupments and recoveries that com-
23                   menced before the date of enactment of this Act, 24                   and

1                             (2) determinations made before the date of en-
2                             actment of this Act by the responsible plan fidu-3                             ciary, in the exercise of its fiduciary discretion, not 4                             to seek recoupment or recovery of all or part of an 5                             inadvertent benefit overpayment.

6       In the case of a benefit overpayment that occurred prior 7       to the date of enactment of this Act, any installment pay-8       ments by the participant or beneficiary to the plan or any 9       reduction in periodic benefit payments to the participant 10      or beneficiary, which were made in recoupment of such 11      overpayment and which commenced prior to such date, 12      may continue after such date. Nothing in this subsection
13      shall relieve a fiduciary from responsibility for an overpay-14      ment that resulted from a breach of its fiduciary duties.

15     SEC. 12. IMPROVING COVERAGE FOR PART-TIME WORKERS.

16       (a) AMENDMENT OF EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT IN-17       COME SECURITY ACT OF 1974.—

18                             (1) IN GENERAL.—Section 202 of the Employee 19                             Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C.
20                             1052) is amended by adding at the end the following 21                             new subsection:

22                             “(c) SPECIAL RULE FOR CERTAIN PART-TIME EM-
23                             PLOYEES.—

24                             “(1) IN GENERAL.—A pension plan that in-25                             cludes either a qualified cash or deferred arrange-

1       ment (as defined in section 401(k) of the Internal 2       Revenue Code of 1986) or a salary reduction agree-
3       ment (as described in section 403(b) of such Code) 4       shall not require, as a condition of participation in 5       the arrangement or agreement, that an employee 6       complete a period of service with the employer (or 7       employers) maintaining the plan extending beyond 8       the close of the earlier of—

9                 “(A) the period permitted under subsection 10          (a)(1) (determined without regard to subpara-11          graph (B)(i) thereof); or 12                 “(B) the first 24-month period—
